

CITY BRIEFS

Thermometer has gone down.
Price of food has gone up.

Maurice Enright given life sentence for murder of Vincent Altman. Judge McCsurely overruled a motion for new trial.

Theodore Jackschewitz of Harvey, asks that name be changed to Jackson. Says he can't spell present name.

Frank Slader, 2509 Racine, killed riding motorcycle yesterday. Struck auto at Diversey parkway and Lincoln. Thrown under the wheels of another auto.

Stefano Bzdusek, 934 N. Central ave., yesterday returned marriage license issued to him Nov. 9, to marry Alsbeta Holic. No wedding bells for Bzdusek, and he says he's glad of it.

John J. Broderick, 12, 122 S. Aberdeen, knocked down and severely injured by auto at Jackson and Aberdeen last night.

Rev. James McCormick, Geneva Catholic church, umpired football game. One player swore at "punk" decision. Father McCormick formerly star athlete. Is that plain enough?

John Whalen, Catholic, wanted to be married by priest. Miss Elizabeth Roberts of Elgin, a Baptist, stuck for Baptist joiner. John has returned to his home in Massachusetts.

Samuel Church, Elgin, climbed 200-foot church steeple to strengthen its support in strong wind.

Hans Federson, 5752 Seeley, died at County hospital yesterday from injuries received when Burlington train backed into street, car at W. 22d and Johnson.

Frederick K. Wells, Battle Creek, crushed between two cars at E. 12th and S. Wabash. Probably die.

Frank Sevink, 50, 11355 Fulton street, fined $50 and costs for annoying two girls in Palmer Park.

No one has attempted to bribe Inspector Nick Hunt for four days.

Fire at 9-11 Michigan street early this morning. $25,000 damage. Prisoners in county jail panic stricken.

Mrs. Mangus Flaws had police force hunting for her son Roy. After two hours frantic searching Mrs. Mangus thought to look in Roy's room. He was there, asleep.

After having lain perfectly still, strapped to a board for 6 months, 7-year-old Ole Mantyle, physicians think, is cured of tuberculosis of the spine.

Two men held up clerk in drug store at 1633 W. 35th street. Obtained $15.20.

Two hold-ups, thought to be same men, robbed John Watson, 6446 Evans, of $55.83 and check for $14.5.

Frank Campoa, 1012 Belknap, run over and probably fatally injured by truck at 12th and S. Center yesterday. Parents reported him missing. Found him at hospital.

Vitto Selo, 41, struck and seriously injured by Cottage Grove avenue car at 12th street.

Lawrence Balkovec, 5119 S. Winchester, dropped dead while on